Description

Charming small Heriz rug from the North West of Persia, which has all the decorative merit of its bigger brothers and sisters- soft terracotta, ivory, light blue and green and camel coloured tones throughout. Take a look at the unusual main border, it is made up of a double column of birds! In good condition, showing light wear, this little gem can find a space almost anywhere in your home, the small size makes it very versatile. On the back side is some old glue residue, which does not affect the use of the rug. 2'6" x 4'0"
