Description

David Woodlock 1842-1929 Figure, landscape and garden painter. Born Ireland. Lived Liverpool, Sheffield and Leamington, Warwicks. He was a key figure in the development of a distinct school of Liverpool painters. He produced some truly beautiful cottage scenes and views of Venice. He was a founder member, and later President, of the Liver Sketching Club and also a member of the Liverpool Academy of Arts. He developed an individualistic style of watercolour painting where the bleeding together of colours often produced dramatic results. Exhibited 17 works at the RA but principally at the Walker Art Gallery, Liverpool where he showed 118 works. This large and fine example of his work is housed in its original decorative gilt frame and surprisingly appears to be unsigned but is undoubtedly by the artist's hand.

'Picking Flowers at Sunset in a Cottage Garden', unsigned watercolour, image size 51x76.5 cms, framed size 72.5x98.5 cms
