Description

A fabulous large meat dome / cover. The piece is unmarked but made of Old Sheffield Plate c1830. Crested to both sides for the 47th Lancashire Regiment (I believe). With a beautiful fluted top and a large decorative removable handle. A very substantial item and a great table centrepiece. The condition is good overall with only a few minor knocks. Slight copper bleed to the raised edges. The handle shows evidence of an early strengthening solder repair but the handle itself remains very firm. The interior is very clean but with a few small stubborn marks. Weight approx 3.8kg. Height approx 28cm Measures at base approx 53cm x 39.5cm.
