Description

Charles Henry PASSEY (1818-1895) - Framed oil painting on canvas. Entitled verso "Near Burford Bridge - sunny" it depicts two country women chatting beside a cart-track on a sunny morning. With tall trees to the left, a cart track with scrub bushes and flowers to the other side and far reaching views into the distance. This is a charming and cheery scene. With a warm sunny glow. Well painted in the Victorian style and remaining in good condition. Signed and dated (1894) - lower left corner. Dimensions: height: 42 inches width: 33.5 inches (107 x 85 cm) The Artist: Charles Henry Passey (born.1818 - died 1895) Had a London address and often painted rural scenes, like this one, but also cornfields and harvesting scenes. He flourished between the years 1870-1885 and exhibited three landscapes, in Derbyshire and Cumberland and at Suffolk Street, London (the home of the Society of British Artists).
