Description

This is a very unusual, high quality early 20th century Coromandel side chair. Coromandel is a very rare wood and to see it on a chair is amazing. The colour and the figuring are the main reasons I love it as a timber. So different and makes a very simple chair a hugely decorative piece. The carved fleur-de-lis is nicely done as well. There are a few losses to the veneer but none that take away from the piece. Its seat is left as calico so you can choose the fabric. We can of course upholster for you.
