Description

A very old (Circa: 1870's) large pine cupboard with a single door (opens from left to right). All in really good condition for its age. The cupboard would have most likely been placed in the hallway, for coats, or landing for linen. Original (and working) lock and key, door mounted on external French-style hinges so opens fully. Please note: this cupboard does not dismantle for delivery, so please check access carefully, especially if going upstairs. With an internal depth of just 16", this could be fitted with a hanging rail, but small hanger would be required. Might be suitable as a children's wardrobe. Alternatively we could fit shelves inside for you @ £20 per shelf. Originally painted, now stripped. Can be purchased in bare wood for £700, or £767 if you'd like us to wax it for you. Height: 68.5", width: 48.5", depth: 18", internal depth: 16"
