Description

A larger than average antique pine larder cupboard, recently stripped, so currently in bare wood. Can be purchased as it is for £700, or waxed: £787. A stack of 5 drawers on the left hand side, each with a small wooden knob, and each running smoothly. On the right, a door (with its original metal vent) - opening from left to right. 3 full depth shelves, and the top half depth shelf inside. In very good condition for its age (circa: 1910), and a good size to accommodate lots of kitchenware and food items. Could also be used as a linen cupboard / bathroom storage cupboard, or even an art cupboard. A very useful and functional piece of furniture. This is a fairly large cupboard, so if it is to go upstairs: please measure access carefully. Height: 65", width: 37.5", depth: 15"
