Description

A smart early twentieth century brass cased travelling compass with lid to protect the glass. The compass has a printed paper dial incorporating "Trade Mark London" and "Made In England". The direction is indicated by an English cross bar needle which pivots on a bearing. Dating to around 1920, the compass remains in superb condition, the case having been professionally polished, restoring it to its former glory. 1 3/4" in diameter x 1/2".
