Description

This attractive and useful piece of storage furniture was once a large dresser top. We have since added a solid new pine plinth, meaning it is floor standing. With its original glazed doors you can display any of your most treasured items, or books. With it being low, you can access your books more easily. Would suit a hallway/landing/study/dining room/library. A very large, wide antique pine cabinet with 4 doors (each with 4 glass panels). A partition half way along separating it into 2 sections, each with 2 shelves inside. The exterior has been wax finished, the inside bare wood. This inside could be waxed for you if required. This is a large piece of furniture, so please check access carefully. Height: 45", width: 85.5", depth: 14.5"
