Description

A lovely small mahogany tilt-top wine table dating from the early 19th Century. It has a rectangular top set on a turned support with tripod splayed legs. The top is made from one solid piece of mahogany and it has a nice patina and mellow colour that has faded over the years in the sunlight. It is in good condition for its age and is strong and sturdy with a good level top. There are signs of age and use, some minor marks and knocks and a few old repairs to the legs but no major damages and it displays very well. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
