Description

This is without doubt one of the finest looking Gents watches we've had the pleasure of presenting in a while, and what a gem it is! So for your consideration is this fabulous manual winding mans watch, cased in 14k rose rolled gold made by the US watch company Bulova with a date stamp on the movement signifying a 1940 manufacture date. This particular model was named Bulova Beacon. The real hero of this watch is it's stepped casing, it screams Art Deco and is further enhanced by it's pale copper dial and stylised numerals. This watch has been fully serviced and electronically cleaned with a new black soft leather strap added with matching rose gold buckle to match the watch case. This really is a classy watch. The size is 25mm wide, excluding crown, by 31mm. 14k rose rolled gold plate, clean case overall with a few light scratches here and there, but no major flaws and not really visible to the naked eye. Bulova 10AX 17 jewel movement just fully serviced with new mainspring. Running strongly and keeping good time. This watch is perfect both for everyday wear and for adding to the collections. A lovely watch any gentleman would love to wear. Shows no wear-through to the...
