Description

This beautiful Antique Amethyst, Peridot and Pearl pendant represents the Suffragette movement, modelled in 9ct Yellow Gold. Suffragettes took to their jewellery to display their involvement in the movement and it became instantly recognisable by the colours of Purple, White and Green. The Green represented hope, White represented purity and Purple represented dignity. The stones in this piece are superb quality adding colour and interest, making this piece a real conversation starter. This is a quality piece which would make a great gift or a superb addition to any collection.
