Description

This Rustic Catalan Shepherd's Bench is bursting with charm and character. Displaying signs of its hard life, with old repairs and wear, and all the better for it. The bench is of a decent size, and the fold down table is just the thing to rest your hard-earned food and drink whilst taking a well-deserved rest. Primitive in its construction and execution, there is a real sense of this being a hard-working piece of furniture for hard working people. The crudely made metalwork adds further interest. The bench is solid, and the table folds easily, with working catches. A real statement piece that is sure to attract attention wherever placed in the home.
