Description

For your consideration is this very attractive 1930's beautifully figured Walnut telephone table. Definitely has a bit of a Bauhaus vibe but we believe this piece to be English in origin. Single cupboard with original catalin bakelite handle to store phone books etc and some tiered shelving for the telephone and any other bits and bobs you want to display. Of course it can be used for other purposes and just as an occasional table in any area. The whole piece has been professionally restored with a baby soft finish to the touch. No defects to note.
