Description

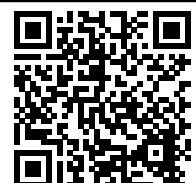

Antique early Tole floor lamp stand & original matching shade in an ivory colour, dating from around the 1900-1920 period, all in good original condition with some natural age related marks on the base. Please enlarge all the images to see all the fabulous details, like the decoration on the shade & the cherub on the top. Plus, the brass eagle heads under the tole candle holders, the decorated stand with shell motifs on the base & the paw feet. There are many other fine details on this lamp of which there are too many to mention. I've never come across a tole lamp stand like this with the original shade & with everything intact. There are many tole wear table lamps, but not complete floor lamps. This one has just been re-wired, so is in working order.
