Description

A huge, handsome, Mid Victorian pine Housekeepers Cupboard. Six doors in the top section, with three shelves inside the left and right hand cupboards, and two shelves inside the middle section, below these are three small key drawers. The base has a stack of three drawers on each side of a centre cupboard, with two doors. It is in excellent condition for its age, stripped a good while ago and now wax finished. Very little restoration required which is included in the price (A small insert needed bottom left of the top, and a handle missing). All the drawers are sliding smoothly. The top separates from the base for delivery. As this is such a large piece, please check access carefully. Height: 88.5" (base height: 33.5"), width: 91", base depth: 20.5", top depth: 15"
