Description

Antique Buren Silver Pocket Watch for James Walker. The watch has a seven jewel Swiss stem-winding movement, identified as by Buren, which is working nicely. The movement is signed with the name of the original retailer of the watch, James Walker, and also with the name Admiralty. Several watch makers and retailers used the world Admiralty as a marketing ploy, implying status, quality and reliability. The movement is protected by an inner cover. The watch measures 49mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is silver and there are hallmarks inside both of the case backs for Birmingham 1923, together with a maker's marks for Aaron Dennison, the Birmingham based case maker and supplier to various watch makers. The front and sides of the case are in good condition. The hinged case back has some unevenness. The glass lens has general marks but is acceptable. The signed dial blued steel hands, a subsidiary seconds dial and outer minute markers. There is a faint hairline running across it. The watch comes in a new presentation box.
