Description

An attractive Georgian antique mahogany secretaire chest of drawers. The mahogany secretaire chest has a top drawer that drops down to reveal a well fitted desk drawer. The desk drawer opens to reveal a fall front writing surface, a series of pigeonholes, drawers and a central cupboard. The antique secretaire chest has a further three full width drawers that sit below, each with brass decorative drop handles. Raised on four splayed feet. Beautiful colour and grain throughout. Item Ref; M-4326 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 105cm / Width – 109cm / Depth – 54cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, scratches and minor dents to the sides, top and drawer fronts (pictured). There are also honest patch repairs, minor losses and cracking to the veneer at the front (pictured) and slight losses to the drawers beading, however this doesn't affect the overall integrity of the piece. The antique secretaire chest remains structurally solid and sound, with the drawers running well. Overall, a good example of its kind. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have...
