Description

An attractive early 20th century antique mahogany pedestal desk, in the Georgian style. The antique pedestal desk has a rectangular top with a leather inset writing surface to the centre and three frieze drawers below. The antique pedestal desk top is raised on twin pedestals either side of the knee hole, forming an arrangement of six graduating drawers, each with brass drop handles. A rather pleasing example, with a rich colour and grain throughout. Comes apart in three sections. Item Ref; M-4317 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 80cm / Width – 131.5cm / Depth – 56cm / Legroom Height - 63cm / Legroom Width - 49cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks and scratches to the top, sides and drawer fronts (pictured), however very minimal. The leather has minor marks and scratches, however remains intact with no apparent tears. The antique pedestal desk remains structurally solid and sound, with the drawers running well. Comes apart in three sections for ease of transport. Overall, a good example of its kind. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full co...
