Description

A rare bird head MacIntyre ceramic egg scent bottle. This is the larger size and marked to the bottom with Reg no 20772. The egg is in good order with some crazing and slight scratches to the surface commensurate with age. The head is not marked, which is not unusual for these items, but it does have a reg no 20060 small dent to top of head please see last picture. The internal cork is still in the head which screws on and off easily. A really nice and rare item. H 6 cm W 4 cm
