Description

Antique very large fine quality ~10'2" mahogany extending dining table triple pedestal, 19th Century. A lovely fine quality dining table with solid mahogany construction and a crossbanded veneer boarder. The table has been recently restored and stands on quality large brass castors. An attractive table that is solid, strong and has no loose joints or woodworm. Attractive slight waviness to the top (as one would expect), but all fits together/stands as it should. Would look amazing in the right location! Overall maximum dimensions: 309cmL (including 46cm and 49cm leaves, which can be removed) x 115cmW x 73cmH. In very good antique condition with historic knocks, marks, repairs, alterations, wear and imperfections as you would expect. Part of one of the table rotary joining clips is missing but it still does it's job. Historic repairs to the pedestals, but all is good and strong.
