Description

Rare Antique Cypriot Templar Related Repousse Dish Charger 1720 This is a wonderful and rare and intriguing antique silver dish with repousse work which could be Templar related from Cyprus dated 1720 The silver dish with hallmarks to the top, is in repousse work and decorated with multiple flowers and folio, none of the flowers are the same on the dish. In the middle is a cartouche, engraved with letters and symbols, it starts strangely with the Templars Jerusalem Cross or the Cross of the Order of Christ, it further comes with a strange series of letters which makes no words i.e.: AZH CK CICTO KYPTE HSONA TONEC OFF FON within between the so called words are symbols placed, it end with the date of 1720, could this be coded ? I have tried to decipher the strange wordings, but could not find anything related. to this dish The silver dish weight is approx 388gr and measures approx. 30cm x 22cm x 3cm
