Description

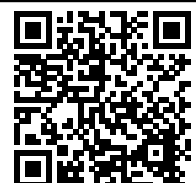

This glamorous vintage ring is bestowed with a gorgeous oval cut aquamarine with glistening facets that mimic light glittering off the surface of a clear blue pool. It weighs approx. 3.8ct and is flanked by three twinkling diamonds chasing down each shoulder, approx. 0.10ct total. Aquamarine derives its name from its calming, clear blue/ green colouring that emulates the beauty of a tropical ocean or icy glacial waters. It was once believed to be the treasure of Mermaids and is said to bring happiness, good fortune and eternal youth. The piece is all 18ct white gold with a pronounced claw mount for the aqua which crowns it proudly atop the finger. It would make an elegant engagement ring for those who adore the aquas tranquil qualities.
