Description

Offered for your consideration are these fabulously comfy pair of original 1930's matching club arm chairs. Both newly reupholstered in leather. Images taken in natural daylight are a true representation of the tone and colours. Wrap around walnut show wood to the chair surround, leading down the arms to the legs. Both chairs are identical and are in great condition, both the wood work and the springing along with re-upholstery. The seat area is slightly larger than normal and so offers plenty of room.
