Description

This beautiful little rug, made by Timuri tribes on the border-lands of eastern Persia and western Afghanistan circa 1870, is a very rare and collectible type with its natural camel-hair field, containing a myriad of tiny shrubs in beautiful natural shades of red, blue and turquoise. The main border itself is rare and the sides have been re-selvedged in order to preserve as much as possible, otherwise there are no other repairs. Size: 1.14m x 0.76m (3' 9" x 2' 6").
