Description

Georgian oak cabriole leg dresser base This Georgian oak cabriole leg dresser base was made circa 1810. The oak dresser base is fitted 3 banded drawers with fretted brass plate handles with swing handles, the apron running under the drawers is scalloped shaped, and a central diamond feature inlay. There are the most elegant of cabriole legs that end on pad feet to the front corners and with the usual square legs to the rear. The overall colour is a lovely honey colour with the wax finish. This Georgian oak cabriole leg dresser base will be a marvellous addition to your home and give you so much pleasure of ownership. Imagine how you will enjoy showing it off to your family and friends who will cast envious eyes on your choice. A dresser of this quality would have been made for an important home on a large farm estate or Country house. It would have been commissioned from a cabinetmaker rather than the local tradesman. 177cms wide 69 1/2ins 48.5cms 19ins 77cms high 30 1/2ins All dimensions are approximate, whilst we take as much care as possible, we can be marginally out.
