Description

A magnificent very large antique circular dining table and ten matching chairs in the Sheraton style. They were made in England, and date from around the 1930's. This set is of the utmost quality and is incredibly beautiful. The large circular dining table has a mahogany top with banding around the edges of four different woods; burr walnut, satin wood, king wood and rosewood. It sits on a solid mahogany splayed leg base with brass feet caps and casters. The ten chairs which all have arms, are beautifully constructed from mahogany and have gorgeous painted floral details. We have had the wood all re-polished and the drop in seats have been re-upholstered in a cream cotton fabric. The condition is superb for its age, with a lovely colour and patina. The table top can unbolt and detach for ease of transport. This is a stunning dining room set & it's very rare to find one this large & so exquisite.
