Description

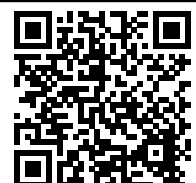

A gorgeous silver mounted plug plug decanter of petite proportions and dating from the end of the Victorian era. The name plug plug originates from the noise that this particular type of decanter makes when pouring. This lovely example is fitted with a hallmarked shaped silver collar and has stunning pierced fretwork to the shoulders. Finished with the original ball stopper and a polished pontil base, it is an attractive and usable piece of antique glassware. Dimensions below. Postage and packing £15.00 UK £22.00 Europe £26.00 Outside Europe Condition :- Excellent, with no dents or splits to the collar. No chips, cracks or clouding to the glass. There is an old strengthening repair to the mount, commensurate with age and use. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable. Makers mark is present, but rubbed. Date :- London 1899. Height :- 13.8 cms. Base :- 5.5 cms x 5.5 cms.
