Description

This wonderful oak child's lambing chair is Welsh in origin. It dates to the late 18thC. It is of primitive pegged construction. With a drawer to one side as can be seen in photographs. It is in the form of a rocking chair. With three plank seat, flat shaped backsplat. Shaped top rail on which is inscribed the letter N. It is in very good condition. A great chair for the chair collector or indeed the Welsh antiques collector.
