Description

This is a beautiful and original 1930's Art Deco set of five tables in Walnut & birds eye maple by the English and highly regarded furniture makers H & L Epstein. This gorgeous set comprises one large central circular table with four matching sectional tables that are two tiered that fit very snugly underneath. As you can see from the pictures this set is in a very desirable heavily figured book paged Walnut veneers to the top with a beautiful soft tone colouring. Wonderful scalloped flower edging to the main table. In excellent condition having been newly and professionally restored by our professional restorers. Images taken in natural daylight. Measures: large table height 56 cm, diameter 75cm Quarter table height 49cm, width 47cm, depth 30cm (shelf gap 18 cm) Bio Epstein furniture is named after two London cabinet makers, Harry and Lou Epstein, who inherited the trade from their father, Morris Epstein. The Epstein Company became one of the most dominant producers of Art Deco furniture, and received recognition for being some of the finest designers of the Art Deco Styles. They custom made most of their furniture pieces using bleached walnut as the primary material. T...
