Description

An excellent example of Victorian whimsy - a solid sterling silver table lighter, modelled as a hunting horn. It is clearly hallmarked for London 1892 and has the maker's mark of Joseph Braham. The silver is in excellent condition, but the horn has one dent, about 1cm in length, just above the hallmarks - please see the photographs - and the lighter is priced accordingly. The lighter is weighted to give extra stability. Dimensions: Height: 15.5cm Diameter of Base: 4.3cm Complimentary gift wrapping is available on request. Post and packaging are free within the UK. Overseas buyers please e-mail for postage costs and please note: Import duties, taxes, and charges are not included in the item price or shipping cost. These charges are the buyer's responsibility. Please check with your country's customs office to determine what these additional costs will be prior to buying.
