Description

A rare, small, 8 day, longcase clock by Smith of Chester. The movement and dial are unusual for a clock of this period, and appear to be peculiar to Smith. The dial is late in style by only being of 10", a round calendar box, 'fleur de lys' half hour markers and count-wheel striking are all also earlier features, and yet the one piece seconds chapter plate helps date the clock to between 1730-40. The movement is further unusual in being only $\frac{3}{4}$ size although easily producing 8 days duration. Original blued steel hands. The case is of oak with walnut cross-banding to the trunk and hood doors. Standing at only 77 $\frac{1}{2}$ " high it is of lovely, neat proportions that will fit into any cottage. Joseph Smith is listed as working in Gloverstone, Chester until after 1769. Serviced and guaranteed for 3 years. Height: 77 $\frac{1}{2}$ " or 196.5cm CIRCA. 1730/40 Provenance: Private collection - U.K. Would you like to view this clock in your own home?
