Description

C19th dished porcelain charger in the early C18th Japanese Imari style by Samson. Impressive C19th porcelain charger decorated in the typical Imari colour palette, by Edme Samson et Cie, Paris, France. Decorated to the dished centre with geese in flight, the borders with traditional early C18th Genroku period style painted floral designs and gilding. The verso raised on a typical foot-ring, the outer edges of the charger decorated with floral sprigs. The Parisian company of Edme Samson et Cie founded in 1845 were renowned producers of high quality reproductions and copies of rare porcelain Japanese, Chinese and European wares. In excellent original condition with no damage or repairs. W 18" D 18" H 4" France c.1870
