Description

Truly a versatile table with great shape and detail. Dating from the 19th Century this has a good Gillows style leg and a great knee-hole space. Could fit into a bedroom perhaps to suit as a dressing table or a personal work table. This tidy table has a black inset in the top and it has been cleaned and refinished on the mahogany with a touch of French polish around the top and a good waxing on the legs. Looks very good now and useful too. Keenly priced we believe for quite an unusual item that will not be found again in a hurry.
