Description

Set of 8 William IV bar back dining chairs This Set of 8 William IV bar back dining chairs were made circa 1820, they are decorated in a faux rosewood design The bar backs make this style of chair very comfortable to sit at. Each chair has turned legs at the front with the desirable upturned tulip carving. The back legs are splayed as you would expect. The back crossbar also has the tulip theme, a pair of tulips joined by the central bullseye. The drop in seats enable a simple way of changing the cover if required. We have upholstered these in a neutral colour so they will fit most colour schemes. Imagine enjoying entertaining your family and friends on these comfortable chairs and recalling what conversations the original owners would have been speaking about in their day. Was it the news from the Napoleonic wars, or perhaps the excited chatter recalling the Cato Street Conspiracy, where there was a plot to kill the Cabinet? 85cms high 33 1/2ins 46cms wide 18ins 51cms deep 20ins 51cms seat height 20ins 41cms seat depth 16ins All Measurements are approximate, whilst we take care in measuring there may at times be a very slight difference.
