Description

A large 19th-century Chinese rice wine jar From Shanxi Province - circa 1890. Displaying a graceful design where elements of the hand-shaped details are visible throughout, demonstrating a wonderful deep black patina. Featuring a wide raised mouth opening with flared rim spout on a domed-edged top narrowing to a tapered bottom. A graceful shape that would lend itself well to an array of interiors. Presenting its original cover. Height - 66cm Width - 42cm Depth - 42cm
