Description

Antique Alabaster And Gilt Bronze Single Fusee Portico Clock In Working Order. This lovely single fusee clock has an alabaster case starting at the top with a gilt bronze eagle finial on a square piece of alabaster. The the leads to the gilt movement housing with a wreath style gilt surround which then sits on another square piece of alabaster. There is then two semi circular shaped pieces of alabaster joined by four nicely shaped pillars with gilt mounts to the top and bottom. The top piece then has four acorn finials as well as an selection of hanging chains. Finally the base is finished by four shaped feet. The dial is then enamel and set out in Arabic numerals with a think ring of dots marking the minutes and every five minutes marked with a star. The dial then has two beautifully shaped fingers as well as a shaped surround. Finally the dial has a clip on bezel which houses a protective glass. The movement is then wound from the front and accessed from the back. It is ticking away as it should and comes complete with its decorative pendulum and winding key. It is a miniature single fusee example of the upmost quality. A truly rare and unusual clock that would...
