Description

A late 19th century Neoclassical Swedish painted commode. Dry scraped, to reveal layers of its original paint. Raised on provincial-shaped bracket feet, with charming detailing to the lip under each drawer. All drawers are painted white to the interior. Displaying simple period verdigris drop handles. A usual scale and design, that would lend itself well to many interiors. Height - 77cm Width - 114cm Depth - 46cm
