Description

Lovely Victorian Mahogany Chiffonier - Circa 1860 A very nice example of a Victorian Period Chiffonier. This piece is hugely stylish and boasts fabulous flamed mahogany and excellent detailed carving throughout. Triple adjustable shelves within the lower cabinet combine with two large upper drawers to offer significant storage. The upper backstand has a nicely presented shelf which is supported on classically turned spindles complete with turret top finials. This space is perfect for display purposes. The upper surface has a gorgeous colour and is in fine order. The lower cabinet section consists of a pair of solid field panel doors which open to reveal a large shelved area. The whole sits upon a continuous plinth. Overall a great Chiffonier in very clean condition that really displays the beauty of the mahogany and the Victorian styling.
