Description

Superbly stylish matching pair of 1930's Art Deco sepia toned petal wall lights, in excellent condition with minimal signs of age and use. The back plates are highly polished chrome which contrasts beautifully with the glass shades. This particular style of Art Deco wall Light is more unusual than the shell wall lights and are also larger giving more of an impact when hung. These lights are fitted with a regular standard bayonet fitting and can take regular size bulbs, 40 - 60 watt bulb would be highest to use. FREE UK mainland delivery
