Description

A beautifully carved oak panel....originally a drawer front (would have loved to have seen the piece of furniture it came from) confidently carved showing a 17thc huntsman complete in his sporting clothes of the time, blowing his horn and holding a spear....accompanied by his three hounds chasing a large stag..... I like the carving of the house and a tulip in the background....it has gained a good colour and is in nice condition. Flemish. C1660-80.
