Description

Dating to the 1930's this very attractive and rare Art Deco hat pin holder is we think possibly by FASOLD & STAUCH more commonly known for making half dolls and is a German company. Rare and in excellent condition, I couldn't find any flaws to note, she's free from any damage. Depicts a flapper girl sat on a stylized rock holding flowers one hand and a hole her hand in the other which can be used for another hatpin or often a cocktail umbrella. She's dressed in the fashion of the day with a pale blue coloured slip dress with black accents trim to the collar, hem and waist. Her cloche hat is of the same colour with black band trim as are her shoes. Exquisite detailing in the make up with delicate porcelain hands and fingers are amazingly all in tact. Registration number is underneath the base. This model is unusual in this size 22.5cm in height, larger models are much harder to find.
