Description

This is a fantastic English Victorian flame mahogany bar Circa 1870 in date. The botanical name for the mahogany this bar is made of is Swietenia Macrophylla, and this type of mahogany is not subject to CITES regulation. The 'rectangular shaped bar features panels to the front and sides. It has an elevated serving top which is raised on four turned columns. The rear features two shelves for drinks & glassware. This bar would be a wonderful and playful addition to your lounge or family room and is sure to get noticed wherever it is placed.
