Description

A superb pair of silver sauce boats made in 1935, by the excellent Goldsmiths and Silversmiths Co. 112 Regent Street, London. Made from a heavy-gauge silver they weigh 380 grams. In the Georgian style, these have a double c-scroll handle, shaped apron edging and very pretty hoof feet, with well-cast, foliate shoulders. The hallmarks are exceptionally crisp and very clear showing the scarce, George and Mary Silver Jubilee stamp. Each piece bears the maker's inscription on the underside. There are no personal engravings and there never have been. In my opinion these pieces have had little or no use, they are in excellent, antique condition, with no damage, repairs or losses. Length from handle to spout: 15.2 cm (Approx. 6 inches) Width: 9cm (3.5 inches) Height: 8cm (Just over 3.25 inches) Combined Weight: 380 grams
