This is a set of antique ship's gallery shelves. An English, mahogany and brass maritime or kitchen rack with safety bars, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910. Attractive shelf unit with carved and pierced detail. Displaying a desirable aged patina, later repair to one side. Select stocks show fine grain interest and warm caramel hues. Removable brass safety rails rest inside the pierced frame. Dressed with a quartet of brass hanging loops for ease of mounting.
