Description

Totally fabulous large pair of ceramic Art Deco lamps with bulbous bases and shaped columns, standing on original raised brass bases. They are very elegant lamps for their size, the contrast of the old brass plated bases with the rough finish ceramic is perfect, and the shaped columns being so slender really making their proportions so good for the lamps to sit on a large sideboard or independent lamp tables. The lamps have been fully re wired with gold braided cord flex and the shades are just examples. Measuring: 34 1/2 inches or 88 cm to the top of the shades 25 inches or 63.5 cm to the bulb holder 10 inches or 25.5 cm maximum diameter
