Description

George III oak padfoot dresser base This George III oak padfoot dresser base was made circa 1785. The dresser base has 3 cabriole legs along the front and the usual square legs to the rear. Under the drawers is the shaped fret in the style of waves. This adds to the overall wonderful design as well as it is of a wonderful honey colour. The drawers banded in a fruitwood and having the original knob brass handles. Antique oak dressers of this style look superb in a dining room, hallway and drawing rooms. They give a feel that they have been there forever and just add an extra quirk to your homes' interior. Imagine the joy of owning this George III oak padfoot dresser base and the enhancement it will give your houses interior. 194cms long 76 1/2ins 53cms deep 21ins 84cms high 33ins All Measurements are approximate, whilst we take care in measuring there may at times be a very slight difference.
