Super quality late 19th century French fiddleback mahogany inlaid round marble top gueridon centre table with original brass mounts and a fully galleried top, circa 1890 and in lovely condition. Interesting marble top being Breche d'alep with the contrast to the rich fiddleback mahogany, complimented by the brass mounts. The table has one drawer to the frieze, stands on very elegant ebony and box wood inlaid tapered legs with a display pot board shelf. Great decorative table and of a good size too.
