Description

ANTOINE BOUVARD Oil painting (1870 - 1956) A beautiful large signed oil on canvas from around 1920 by Antoine Bouvard Senior - signed with his well recorded pseudonym Pelletier. He mainly painted Venetian scenes under a number of pseudonyms but also painted landscapes in France and signed them Beraud and Pelletier. Title: "Gathering water by a river" Signature: Signed lower right Provenance: Private French collection Medium: Oil on original canvas Size: 21 x 29 inches unframed / 27 x 35 inches framed Condition: Very good ABOUT THE ARTIST: Antoine Bouvard was christened as Eloi Noel Beraud on December 26, 1870 in Saint-Étienne. The civil status declared "Éloi-Noël Isodore Béraud born of unknown parents". In 1885, the public assistance sent him to a host family in Toul where he remained until February 10, 1894. Back in Saint-Etienne, he attended the Beaux Arts courses where he began copying the old Masters. On August 4, 1900, he married Marie Luce in Puy. His son Georges-Noël was born on December 25, 1912. Eloi Noel Beraud's style developed and he began to paint beautiful scenes with Barbizon accents as well...
