Description

Superb mahogany snap top dining table from the wonderful Victorian era. The beautifully veneered mahogany top with its moulded edge has amazing graining. There are some marks etc due to age and use however these only add character and charm to this outstanding table. Its gorgeously carved quadroform pedestal is an exquisite example of Victorian craftsmanship. A gorgeous table not only practical for use but if you don't have much space, it tilts and can be stored nicely in the corner of the room.
